

We are looking for...

We would like to hear from any candidates without professional experience but with an interest to work as inside sales. You will work with a KAM to engage with the customers in their portfolio. According to the company sales strategy and vision, the main purpose is to support their customer's needs to protect and grow the share of their business.

Requirements...

- No experience required.
- Understanding of the complete sales cycle management from prospecting to closing
- Motivated and results-oriented with a positive outlook and a clear focus on delivering high-quality service to our customers.
- Ability to build long-term relationships with customers and partners through trust and credibility
- Excellent time management and organizational skills.
- Excellent written and spoken English (C1)

Valuable:

- Previous sales experience
- Experience working with Hubspot